INTRODUCTION

2       1.       This case presents circumstances that would have been unthinkable to our 3 Founding Fathers. Defendants seek to impose vaccine mandates that are patently unfair, 4 clearly devoid of common sense, and manifestly unlawful. They are also dangerously un-5 American.

6       2.       Defendants are trying to use federal procurement statutes to create out of thin 7 air sweeping new power for the President to issue decrees over one-quarter of the economy.
8 But the United States is not a dictatorship, and one man cannot simply snap his fingers and 9 transform conduct that was previously lawful—and even protected by state law—into 10 unlawful actions that are exceedingly dangerous to citizens’ economic well-being. Instead, 11 the President could do so—if at all—if he had statutory authority upon which he could rely 12 and followed the procedures required by those statutes. Here, President Biden has neither 13 such statutory authority nor has his Administration complied with the mandatory 14 procedures of the procurement statutes putatively (but not actually) giving him authority 15 to impose the challenged vaccination mandate here.

16       3.       The explicit purpose of those procurement statutes, however, is only to 17 achieve greater economy and efficiency in the federal government’s purchase of goods and 18 services. Yet, Defendants claim that federal procurement statutes give them plenary power 19 over the personal and private medical decisions of millions of people, thereby infringing 20 upon (1) their constitutional rights to maintain their bodily integrity and to refuse medical 21 treatment, and (2) their explicit statutory rights under the Emergency Use Authorization 22 statute. Remarkably, Defendants apparently do not even appear to understand how the 23 federal procurement statutes function, for Defendants failed to follow the basic statutory 24 constraint that requires that significant changes to procurement policies must be published 25 for notice and comment before taking effect.
26

1           4.     The sweep of the contractor mandates is exceedingly broad, and reaches 2 multiple State agencies, departments, and other entities, including the State’s own Division 3 of Civil Rights and its universities. And not content with subjecting only federal contractors 4 to this unconstitutional and unlawful abuse, Defendants also seek to do the same to federal 5 employees. And because Defendants have already amended the guidance for Contractor 6 and Employee mandates multiple times, there is no telling what other onerous obligations 7 may put Plaintiffs in breach at a moment’s notice.

8           5.     The Biden Administration has announced multiple, unprecedented federal 9 mandates requiring persons to be vaccinated against COVID-19, upon threat of losing 10 their jobs or their livelihood. In particular, on September 9, 2021, President Biden 11 pronounced that his “patience is wearing thin”<sup>1</sup> with Americans who choose not to receive 12 the COVID-19 vaccine. President Biden announced plans to require that all private 13 employers with more than 100 employees impose COVID-19 vaccine mandates on their 14 employees; that all federal employees and contractors receive the COVID-19 vaccine; and 15 that virtually all health care providers receive the COVID-19 vaccine.

16           6.     Defendants’ unlawful actions here, however, are but one piece of a greater 17 series of constitutionally improper actions: one of the greatest infringements upon 18 individual liberties, principles of federalism, and separation of powers ever attempted by 19 any administration in the history of our Republic. Defendants’ ambitions are not limited 20 to exceeding their delegated powers and violating the Constitution merely through 21 trampling upon due process. They also violate principles of federalism, under which the 22 federal government has only enumerated powers, by exercising the sort of general police 23 power reserved solely to the States under the Tenth Amendment and unconstitutionally 24 subvert Congress’s authority by exercising quintessentially legislative powers, and in a

1 manner that could never pass either (let alone both) Houses of Congress today—which is 2 precisely why Defendants have no intent whatsoever to ask for legislative authorization 3 to take such unprecedented actions. Under our Constitution, the President is not a king 4 who can exercise this sort of unbridled power unilaterally. And even George III wouldn't 5 have dreamed that he could enact such sweeping policies by royal decree alone.

6       7. Defendants' vaccine mandates might have been legally defensible in a 7 universe where there had never been a Magna Carta, a Constitution, and a Bill of Rights; 8 or maybe in a universe where the United States only had a unitary national government 9 with no shared sovereignty with the States. But we do not inhabit such a parallel universe.
10 Defendants' mandates are wholly foreign to our actual system—a federal republic where 11 powers are divided between the States and the Federal government. In our republic, the 12 Federal government possesses only those powers specifically enumerated in the 13 Constitution. And at all levels of government, powers are further limited by the natural 14 rights retained by the people. However, Defendants appear to have forgotten these basic 15 principles that are taught in the first week of high school civics class.

16       8. Recognizing that the Federal Government lacks the authority to directly 17 impose a mandate, even the President's own Chief of Staff retweeted that what the 18 administration was planning would be the "ultimate work-around."

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Mark Brnovich is the Attorney General of the State of Arizona. He is the State's chief legal officer and has the authority to represent the State in federal court.

10. Plaintiff State of Arizona is a sovereign state of the United States of America. Arizona sues to vindicate its sovereign, quasi-sovereign, and proprietary interests.

11. Plaintiff Arizona is one of four states on the United States-Mexico border. As a border state, it suffers disproportionately from immigration-related burdens. Upon information and belief, multiple agencies and political subdivisions of the State are contractors with the federal government and thus subject to Defendants' COVID-19 vaccine mandate. Included among those contractors is the Civil Rights Division of the Arizona Attorney General's Office.

12. Plaintiff Al Reble has been an employee of the Department of Justice for 30 years. He works at the federal courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona. He has an exemplary

1 personnel record, and no record of prior discipline, with “Outstanding” performance 2 evaluations the past two years (which is the highest possible) and nothing in recent memory 3 below “excellent” (which is the next highest evaluation). He strongly opposes the COVID-4 19 vaccine, and he has not taken it. He also opposes Defendants’ vaccine mandate and has 5 no intention of complying with it. Plaintiff Reble has requested a medical exemption from 6 Defendants’ federal employee vaccine mandate. Given the limited and strict approach 7 Defendants have applied to exemption requests, and reports that nearly all such requests 8 are being denied, Plaintiff Reble expects that his medical exemption request will be denied.

9 13. Plaintiff Phoenix Law Enforcement Association (“PLEA”) is the certified 10 representative pursuant to the City of Phoenix meet and confer ordinance for unit 4 rank 11 and file police officers and brings this action on behalf of itself and on behalf of the officers 12 it represents.

13 14. Plaintiff United Phoenix Firefighters Association Local 493 is the certified 14 bargaining representative for the firefighters for the City of Phoenix and brings this action 15 on behalf of itself and on behalf of the firefighters it represents.

16 15. Defendant Joseph R. Biden is the President of the United States. President 17 Biden is sued in his official capacity.

18 16. Defendant Alejandro Mayorkas is the Secretary of Homeland Security.
19 Secretary Mayorkas is sued in his official capacity.

20 17. Defendant United States Department of Homeland Security is a federal 21 agency.

22 18. Defendant Troy Miller serves as Senior Official Performing the Duties of 23 the Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”). Acting Commissioner 24 Miller is sued in his official capacity.

1           19. Defendant Tae Johnson serves as Deputy Director and Senior Official 2 Performing the Duties of Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Acting 3 Director Johnson is sued in his official capacity.

4           20. Defendant Ur M. Jaddou serves as Director of U.S. Citizenship and 5 Immigration Services. Director Jaddou is sued in her official capacity.

6           21. Defendant United States Office of Personnel Management (“OPM”) is an 7 independent federal agency.

8           22. Defendant Kiran Ahuja is director of OPM and co-chair of the Safer Federal 9 Workforce Task Force. Director Ahuja is sued in her official capacity.

10          23. Defendant General Services Administration (“GSA”) is an independent 11 federal agency.

12          24. Defendant Robin Carnahan is administrator of GSA and co-chair of the 13 Safer Federal Workforce Task Force. She is sued in her official capacity.

14          25. Defendant Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”) is an office within 15 the Executive Office of the President of the United States.

16          26. Defendant Shalanda Young is Acting Director of the Office of Management 17 and Budget and is a member of the Safer Federal Workforce Task Force. She is sued in her 18 official capacity.

19          27. Defendant Safer Federal Workforce Task Force was established on January 20 20, 2021 by Executive Order 13991. The three co-chairs who oversee the SFWTF are: (1) 21 the Director of OPM; (2) the Administrator of GSA; and (3) the COVID-19 Response 22 Coordinator. The other named members of the SFWTF are (1) Director of the Federal 23 Protective Service; (2) the Director of the United States Secret Service; (3) the 24 Administrator of the Federal Emergency Management Agency; and (4) the Director of the 25 CDC.
26

1           28. Defendant Jeffrey Zients is co-chair of the Safer Federal Workforce Task 2 Force and is the Biden Administration's COVID-19 Response Coordinator. He is sued in 3 his official capacity.

4           29. Defendant L. Eric Patterson is Director of the Federal Protective Service and 5 is a member of the SFWTF. He is sued in his official capacity.

6           30. Defendant James M. Murray is Director of the United States Secret Service 7 and is a member of the SFWTF. He is sued in his official capacity.

8           31. Defendant Deanne Criswell is Director of the Federal Emergency 9 Management Agency and is a member of the SFWTF. She is sued in her official capacity.

10           32. Defendant Rochelle Walensky is Director of the Centers for Disease Control 11 and Prevention and is a member of the SFWTF and is also the head of the agency which 12 stands to exclude Arizona from some federal contracts on the basis of this vaccine mandate.
13 She is sued in her official capacity.

14           33. Defendant Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (the "CDC") is a 15 federal agency.

16           34. Defendant Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council ("FAR Council") is the 17 agency exclusively charged with creating "[g]overnment-wide procurement regulation[s]." 18 41 U.S.C. § 1303(a)(1). It is also responsible for "manag[ing], coordinat[ing], control[ing], 19 and monitor[ing] the maintenance of, issuance of, and changes in the Federal Acquisition 20 Regulation." 41 U.S.C. § 1303(d). The FAR Council issued guidance that is challenged by 21 this suit.

22           35. Defendants Mathew C. Blum, Lesley A. Field, Karla S. Jackson, Jeffrey A.
23 Koses, and John M. Tenaglia are members of the FAR Council on account of their roles in 24 their respective agencies. They are sued in their official capacities. Defendant Blum is the 25 Chair of the FAR Council. Defendant Field is the Acting Administrator for Federal 26 Procurement at the Office of Federal Procurement Policy ("OFPP") in OMB. Defendant

1 Jackson is the Assistant Administrator for Procurement at the National Aeronautics and 2 Space Administration. Defendant Koses is the Senior Procurement Executive at the 3 General Services Administration. Defendant Tenaglia is the Principal Director of Defense 4 Pricing and Contracting at the Department of Defense.

5 36. Defendant Department of Justice is the employing agency of Plaintiff Al 6 Reble.

7 37. Defendant Merrick Garland is Attorney General of the United States of 8 America. He is sued in his official capacity.

9 38. Defendant United States of America includes the departments and agencies 10 thereof.

11 39. All of these federal government Defendants have acted in the color of federal 12 law with their authority purportedly derived from Defendant United States of America.

13 40. Defendant City of Phoenix is a city in the State of Arizona. It is sued on the 14 basis of the claims asserted against it by Plaintiffs PLEA and United Phoenix Firefighters 15 Association Local 493 because the City is implementing the federal Defendants' 16 Contractor Mandate.

17 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18 41. This Court has jurisdiction under 5 U.S.C. §§ 702–703 and 28 U.S.C.
19 §§ 1331 and 1361.

20 42. The Court is authorized to award the requested declaratory and injunctive 21 relief under 5 U.S.C. §§ 702 and 706, 28 U.S.C. § 1361, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-2202.

22 43. Venue is proper within this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because 23 (1) Plaintiffs reside in Arizona and no real property is involved and (2) “a substantial part 24 of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred” in this District.

LEGAL AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND RELATED TO VACCINE MANDATES

Federalism And The Tenth Amendment

44. Under principles of federalism, the federal government has only enumerated powers and not the sort of general police power reserved solely to the States under the Tenth Amendment. Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898, 919 (1997) (“Residual state sovereignty was also implicit, of course, in the Constitution's conferral upon Congress of not all governmental powers, but only discrete, enumerated ones, Art. I, § 8, which implication was rendered express by the Tenth Amendment's assertion that ‘[t]he powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.’”). “The powers reserved to the several States will extend to all the objects which, in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, liberties, and properties of the people, and the internal order, improvement, and prosperity of the State.” The Federalist No. 45 (James Madison). Thus, the “police power” is “inherent in the states” and is “reserved from the grant of powers to the federal government by the Constitution.” United States v. Constantine, 296 U.S. 287, 295–96 (1935). It is well-settled that the power to impose vaccine mandates, if any such power exists, is part of the police powers reserved to the States. E.g. Zucht v. King, 260 U.S. 174, 176 (1922) (“it is within the police power of a state to provide for compulsory vaccination” (emphasis added)).

The Procurement Act

45. The purpose of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act (the “Procurement Act”) “is to provide the Federal Government with an economical and efficient system for” procurement. 40 U.S.C. § 101. The Procurement Act allows the President to “prescribe policies and directives that the President considers necessary to carry out” the Act, but requires that such policies “be consistent with” the Act. 40 U.S.C.

1 § 121(a). Such policies (and regulations established pursuant to them) are not valid unless 2 there is “a nexus between the regulations and some delegation of the requisite legislative 3 authority by Congress,” and “the reviewing court [must] reasonably be able to conclude 4 that the grant of authority contemplates the regulations issued.” Chrysler Corp. v. Brown, 5 441 U.S. 281, 304, 308 (1979).

6 46. There is no such nexus when such policies are “too attenuated to allow a 7 reviewing court to find the requisite connection between procurement costs and social 8 objectives.” Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Friedman, 639 F.2d 164, 171 (4th Cir. 1981). There is 9 also no such nexus when such policies are imposed on subcontractors, who have “no direct 10 connection to federal procurement” and thus do “not lie ‘reasonably within the 11 contemplation of’” the Procurement Act. Id. at 171–72. Furthermore, the Procurement Act 12 does not confer on the President the power to impose policies that “conflict with another 13 federal statute.” Chamber of Com. of U.S. v. Reich, 74 F.3d 1322, 1333 (D.C. Cir. 1996).

14 The Procurement Policy Act

15 47. The Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act (“Procurement Policy Act”) requires that “a procurement policy, regulation, procedure, or form (including an 16 amendment or modification thereto) may not take effect until 60 days after it is published 17 for public comment in the Federal Register ... if it—(A) relates to the expenditure of 18 appropriated funds; and (B)(i) has a significant effect beyond the internal operating 19 procedures of the agency issuing the policy, regulation, procedure, or form; or (ii) has a 20 significant cost or administrative impact on contractors or offerors.” 41 U.S.C. § 1707(a).
 21 This requirement may only be “waived by the officer authorized to issue a procurement 22 policy, regulation, procedure, or form if urgent and compelling circumstances make 23 compliance with the requirements impracticable.” 41 U.S.C. § 1707(d).

24 48. Under 41 U.S.C. § 1303(a), only the FAR Council has authority to “issue and 25 maintain . . . a single Government-wide procurement regulation, . . . known as the Federal 26

Acquisition Regulation.” No other agency may issue government-wide procurement regulations. Individual executive agencies may only issue “regulations relating to procurement” that are “essential to implement Government-wide policies and procedures within the agency; and . . . additional policies and procedures required to satisfy the specific and unique needs of the agency.” Id.

The Emergency Use Authorization Statute

49. Under 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3, the Secretary of Health and Human Services “may authorize the introduction ... of a drug, device, or biological product intended for use in an actual or potential emergency” before such products receive full FDA approval. Such Emergency Use Authorizations (“EUAs”) are subject to strict requirements, including that “individuals to whom the product is administered are informed ... of the option to accept or refuse administration of the product.” 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3(e)(1)(A)(ii)(III) (emphasis added). The FDA has interpreted this provision of the EUA statute to mean that “[r]ecipients must* have an opportunity to accept or refuse the EUA product and must be informed of any consequences of refusing administration of the product” and that this right to refuse can only be waived if the President makes a specific determination in writing, and only with respect to members of the armed forces.<sup>2</sup> When Congress adopted

<sup>2</sup> FDA, Guidance Emergency Use Authorization of Medical Products, 2007 WL 2319112, at *15 and n.16 (acknowledging that “Congress authorized the President to waive, under certain circumstances, the option for members of the armed forces to accept or refuse administration of an EUA product”) (emphasis added); see also, FDA, Emergency Use Authorization of Medical Products and Related Authorities: Guidance for Industry and Other Stakeholders, OMB Control No. 0910-0595 at 24 n.46 (Jan. 2017), <https://www.fda.gov/media/97321/download>; 10 U.S.C. § 1107a(a) (stating that the requirements of 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3(e)(1)(A)(ii)(III), as applied to the armed forces, “may be waived only by the President only if the President determines, in writing, that complying with such requirement is not in the interests of national security”); Authorization of Emergency Use of Anthrax Vaccine Adsorbed for Prevention of Inhalation Anthrax by Individuals at Heightened Risk of Exposure Due to Attack With Anthrax; Availability, 70 Fed. Reg. 5452-02, 5455 (Feb. 2, 2005) (creating EUA for anthrax vaccine for members of the armed forces, and stating that “[i]ndividuals who refuse anthrax

1 the statute, it interpreted it in the same way, explaining it as “the right ... to refuse 2 administration of a product.”<sup>3</sup>

3 The Major Questions Doctrine

4 50. Courts will not assume that Congress has assigned to Executive Branch 5 questions of “deep economic and political significance” unless Congress has done so 6 expressly. See King v. Burwell, 576 U.S. 473, 486 (2015); Food & Drug Admin. v. Brown 7 & Williamson Tobacco Corp., 529 U.S. 120, 160 (2000).

8 51. Defendants’ attempts to use the Procurement Act as justification for the 9 contractor mandate is akin to the Federal Government’s recent attempt at using the Public 10 Health Safety Act as justification for a far-reaching nationwide eviction moratorium. That 11 attempt was swiftly struck down by the Supreme Court, which held that “[w]e expect 12 Congress to speak clearly when authorizing an agency to exercise powers of ‘vast 13 economic and political significance.’” Alabama Ass’n of Realtors v. Dep’t of Health & 14 Hum. Servs., 141 S. Ct. 2485, 2489 (2021) (quoting Utility Air Regulatory Group v. EPA, 15 573 U.S. 302, 324 (2014)). This is particularly so when the federal government “intrudes 16 into an area that is the particular domain of state law.” Id. The Supreme Court’s “precedents 17 require Congress to enact exceedingly clear language if it wishes to significantly alter the 18 balance between federal and state power and the power of the Government over private 19 property.” Id. The Procurement Act contains no such language conferring on the President 20 the authority to impose nationwide public health measures.

21 Non-Statutory Causes of Action and Sovereign Immunity

22 52. When “a statute . . . makes no provision for judicial review. . . . [t]hat alone, 23 of course, is not decisive” as to whether federal courts have jurisdiction to review. “For the 24 silence of Congress as to judicial review is not necessarily to be construed as a denial of 25 the power of the federal courts to grant relief in the exercise of the general jurisdiction 26 vaccination will not be punished”).

1 which Congress has conferred upon them.” Estep v. United States, 327 U.S. 114, 119-20 2 (1946) (citations omitted). Thus, “[c]ourts have long recognized the existence of an implied 3 cause of action through which plaintiffs may seek equitable relief to remedy a 4 constitutional violation.” Roman v. Wolf, 977 F.3d 935, 941 (9th Cir. 2020) (citation 5 omitted).

6 53. This is true also for actions challenging executive actions as ultra vires:
 7 “when Congress limits its delegation of power, courts infer (unless the statute clearly 8 directs otherwise) that Congress expects this limitation to be judicially enforced. The 9 passage of the APA has not altered this presumption. Prior to the APA’s enactment courts 10 had recognized the right of judicial review of agency actions that exceeded authority, and 11 nothing in the subsequent enactment of the APA altered that doctrine of review to repeal 12 the review of ultra vires actions. When an executive acts ultra vires, courts are normally 13 available to reestablish the limits on his authority.” Sierra Club v. Trump, 963 F.3d 874, 14 891 (9th Cir.) vacated on other grounds sub nom., Biden v. Sierra Club, No. 20-138, 2021 15 WL 2742775 (U.S. July 2, 2021) (cleaned up). Thus, “review is ordinarily available when 16 an agency exceeds its delegation of authority,” Id. (citing Chamber of Commerce of the 17 United States v. Reich, 74 F.3d 1322, 1325–26 (D.C. Cir. 1996)).

18 54. When challenging “the President’s statutory authority to issue [an] executive 19 order,” if “a plaintiff is unable to bring his case predicated on either a specific or a general 20 statutory review provision, he may still be able to institute a non-statutory review action.” 21 Id. at 892 (quoting Reich, 74 F.3d at 1327). This is because “the responsibility of 22 determining the limits of statutory grants of authority is a judicial function entrusted to the 23 courts by Congress by the statutes establishing courts and marking their jurisdiction.” Id.
 24 (quoting Reich, 74 F.3d at 1327) (cleaned up). And even where a statute “expressly limit[s] 25 judicial review . . . court[s] retain[] the ability to review whether [an agency] exceeded the 26 authority delegated by the statute” because “the presumption of judicial review is 1 particularly strong where an agency is alleged to have acted beyond its authority.” Id.

 2 (quoting Dart v. United States, 848 F.2d 217, 219, 223-34 (D.C. Cir. 1988)).

3 55. Furthermore, sovereign immunity does not bar most claims for equitable 4 relief against executive agencies because Congress “largely eliminat[ed] the federal 5 sovereign immunity defense” when it amended 5 U.S.C. § 702 in 1976. E. V. v. Robinson, 6 906 F.3d 1082, 1092 (9th Cir. 2018). As the Ninth Circuit has explained, “[o]n its face, the 7 1976 amendment is an unqualified waiver of sovereign immunity in actions seeking 8 nonmonetary relief against legal wrongs for which governmental agencies are accountable” 9 and “waives sovereign immunity in all actions seeking relief from official misconduct 10 except for money damages. . . . Congress stated that ‘the time [has] now come to eliminate 11 the sovereign immunity defense in all equitable actions for specific relief against a Federal 12 agency or officer acting in an official capacity.’” The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) v.
 13 United States, 870 F.2d 518, 525 (9th Cir. 1989) (emphasis added) (quoting H.Rep. No.
 14 1656, 94th Cong., 2d Sess. 9, reprinted in 1976 U.S.Code Cong. & Admin.News 6121, 15 6129). In a non-statutory cause of action seeking equitable relief, there is no requirement 16 that the challenged action have been final agency action under the APA. “[T]he second 17 sentence of § 702 waives sovereign immunity broadly for all causes of action that meet its 18 terms, while § 704’s ‘final agency action’ limitation applies only to APA claims.” Navajo 19 Nation v. Dep’t of the Interior, 876 F.3d 1144, 1172 (9th Cir. 2017).

20 56. Furthermore, for claims that do not fall within the APA’s waiver of sovereign 21 immunity “a suit against a federal official for specific relief is not considered to be against 22 the government, and thus is not barred by sovereign immunity, where the plaintiff alleges: 23 (1) action by officers beyond their statutory powers or (2) even though within the scope of 24 their authority, the powers themselves or the manner in which they are exercised are 25 constitutionally void.” E. V., 906 F.3d at 1091 (cleaned up).

Due Process Rights To Bodily Integrity And To Refuse Medical Treatment

57. “[E]ven in a pandemic, the Constitution cannot be put away and forgotten.” Roman Cath. Diocese of Brooklyn v. Cuomo, 141 S. Ct. 63, 68 (2020). “[A] competent person has a constitutionally protected liberty interest in refusing unwanted medical treatment.” Cruzan by Cruzan v. Dir., Missouri Dep’t of Health, 497 U.S. 261, 278 (1990). This right is rooted in “the common-law rule that forced medication was a battery, and the long legal tradition protecting the decision to refuse unwanted medical treatment.” Washington v. Glucksberg, 521 U.S. 702, 725 (1997). The “rights to determine one’s own medical treatment[] and to refuse unwanted medical treatment” are fundamental rights,” and individuals have “a fundamental liberty interest in medical autonomy.” Coons v. Lew, 762 F.3d 891, 899 (9th Cir. 2014) (as amended) (cleaned up).

58. “[D]ue process ... substantively protects a person’s rights to be free from unjustified intrusions to the body, to refuse unwanted medical treatment and to receive sufficient information to exercise these rights intelligently.” Benson v. Terhune, 304 F.3d 874, 884 (9th Cir. 2002) (citations omitted). Individuals thus have a “constitutional right to be free from state-imposed violations of bodily integrity.” Plumeau v. Sch. Dist. No. 40 Cty. of Yamhill, 130 F.3d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1997). A “forcible injection ... into a nonconsenting person’s body represents a substantial interference with that person’s liberty.” Washington v. Harper, 494 U.S. 210, 229 (1990). The right to “bodily integrity” is “fundamental” and is “deeply rooted in this Nation’s history and tradition.” Franceschi v. Yee, 887 F.3d 927, 937 (9th Cir. 2018) (quoting Moore v. East Cleveland, 431 U.S. 494, 503 (1977)). “Every violation of a person’s bodily integrity is an invasion of his or her liberty. The invasion is particularly intrusive if it creates a substantial risk of permanent injury and premature death. Moreover, any such action is degrading if it overrides a competent person’s choice to reject a specific form of medical treatment.” Washington v. Harper, 494 U.S. 210, 237 (1990) (Stevens, J., concurring in part).

1           59. Under the unconstitutional conditions doctrine, the government may not 2 condition employment “on a basis that infringes [an employee’s] constitutionally protected 3 interests.” Perry v. Sindermann, 408 U.S. 593, 597 (1972); see also, Koontz v. St. Johns
 4 River Water Mgmt. Dist., 570 U.S. 595, 606 (2013) (“[T]he unconstitutional conditions 5 doctrine forbids burdening the Constitution’s enumerated rights by coercively withholding 6 benefits from those who exercise them....”); Koontz v. St. Johns River Water Mgmt. Dist., 7 570 U.S. 595, 604 (2013) (“[A]n overarching principle, known as the unconstitutional 8 conditions doctrine, . . . vindicates the Constitution’s enumerated rights by preventing the 9 government from coercing people into giving them up.”). The same rule applies to 10 government contracts. Bd. of Cty. Comm’rs, Wabaunsee Cty., Kan. v. Umbehr, 518 U.S.
 11 668, 678 (1996).

12 Government Vaccine Mandates Are Illegal Under Arizona Law

13           60. Arizona law makes it illegal for state and local governments to impose 14 vaccine mandates and restricts the power of private employers to impose them, including 15 the following:

- 16 • “If an employer receives notice from an employee that the employee’s sincerely held 17 religious beliefs, practices or observances prevent the employee from taking the 18 COVID-19 vaccination, the employer shall provide a reasonable accommodation unless 19 the accommodation would pose an undue hardship and more than a de minimus cost to 20 the operation of the employer’s business.” A.R.S. § 23-206.
- 21 • “No person shall be required by this state, or any city, town or county to obtain a 22 COVID-19 vaccine. . . .” Arizona Executive Order 2021-19; see also Yes on Prop 200 23 v. Napolitano, 215 Ariz. 458, 467 ¶ 27 (Ariz. Ct. App. 2007) (in Arizona, “the Governor 24 has the power to supervise executive branch officials,” and “a Governor’s order is 25 binding on lower executive branch officials”) (citations omitted)).
 26

- 1 • “Any county, city, town or political subdivision official that implements a vaccine 2 mandate contrary to the authorities outlined in this order, is in violation of A.R.S. §§ 3 36-114 and 36-184 and such actions are punishable by a class 3 misdemeanor and 4 subject to legal action by individuals for violation of their rights under Arizona law.” 5 Arizona Executive Order 2021-18.
- 6 • Arizona’s public health statute specifically forbids “impos[ing] on any person against 7 his will any mode of treatment, provided that sanitary or preventive measures and 8 quarantine laws are complied with by the person.” A.R.S. § 36-114 and -184(C).

9 The Vaccine Development And Approval Process

10 61. According to the CDC, usually “[v]accine licensing is a lengthy process that 11 can take 10 years or longer” that involves “three phases of clinical trials with human 12 subjects before they can be licensed for use in the general public.”<sup>4</sup> A Phase 3 trial is the 13 final phase before a vaccine is approved and involves a much larger test group than the 14 first two phases. “Typically, these [phase 3] trials last several years” to allow researchers 15 time to compare vaccine recipients “to those who have not received the vaccine” and thus 16 discover potential side effects of the vaccine.<sup>5</sup>

17 62. Vaccines that have not yet been fully approved by the FDA may be approved 18 under an Emergency Use Authorization that is less rigorous than the full approval process.
19 For example, the FDA typically only requires two months’ worth of data from Phase 3 20 trials to approve an EUA.<sup>6</sup>

63. The FDA’s process for full approval of COVID-19 vaccines has been significantly accelerated. For example, the Phase 3 trial data that the FDA used to grant “approval of the [Pfizer] COMIRNATY [vaccine] included participants 16 years of age and older who had been enrolled from July 27, 2020, and who were followed for ... follow-up through as late as March 13, 2021.”<sup>7</sup> The FDA thus required less than eight months of Phase 3 trial data, rather than the period of several years normally used to observe side effects and adverse events.

Biden Administration Response to COVID-19

64. On January 20, 2021 President Biden signed an Executive Order (“EO”) 13991 (86 Fed. Reg. 7045), which established the Safer Federal Workforce Task Force (“SFWTF”) and tasked it with “provid[ing] ongoing guidance to heads of agencies on the operation of the Federal Government, the safety of its employees, and the continuity of Government functions during the COVID–19 pandemic.” 86 Fed. Reg. at 7046. The SFWTF is headed by three co-chairs: (1) the Director of OPM; (2) the Administrator of GSA; and (3) the COVID–19 Response Coordinator. The Director of OPM is also a member of the SFWTF. The EO also required that GSA “provide funding and administrative support for the” SFWTF. Id.

65. On September 9, 2021, President Biden announced his “new plan to require more Americans to be vaccinated” by imposing “new vaccination requirements” that “require all employers with 100 or more employees, that together employ over 80 million workers, to ensure their workforces are fully vaccinated or show a negative test at least once a week.” He also announced plans to “requir[e] vaccinations” of “those who work in hospitals, home healthcare facilities, or other medical facilities — a total of 17 million healthcare workers.” He further announced that he would “sign an executive order that will

1 now require all executive branch federal employees to be vaccinated — all. And I’ve 2 signed another executive order that will require federal contractors to do the same.” And 3 finally, he announced that he would “require all of nearly 300,000 educators in the federal 4 paid program, Head Start program” to get vaccinated.<sup>8</sup>

5 66. President Biden listed as one of the main justifications for his new COVID 6 mandates that “the FDA granted ... approval” for the COVID—19 vaccine and “[s]o, the 7 time for waiting is over.”<sup>9</sup>

8 67. In reality, however, only the Pfizer Comirnaty vaccine—just one of the three 9 COVID-19 vaccines subject to President Biden’s COVID-19 vaccine mandate—has been 10 approved by the FDA. The other two available COVID-19 vaccines (manufactured by 11 Moderna and by Johnson & Johnson) are not FDA-approved and are only available under 12 EUAs.

13 68. Additionally, upon information and belief, the Comirnaty vaccine is not 14 currently being distributed in the United States. For example, an NIH notice from 15 September 13, 2021 states that “[a]t present, Pfizer does not plan to produce any 16 [Comirnaty] product with these new NDCs and labels over the next few months while EUA 17 authorized product is still available and being made available for U.S. distribution.”<sup>10</sup> The 18 only Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine actually available in the United States is the prior Pfizer– 19 BioNTech COVID-19 version that is also only available pursuant to an EUA. Therefore, 20 the only three COVID-19 vaccines available in the United States to satisfy President 21 Biden’s vaccine demands are vaccines available only under EUAs, and which are therefore 22 subject to the requirements of 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3.

69. Following President Biden’s remarks, the White House released a webpage with further information about Defendants’ “COVID Plan.” The White House stated that “[t]he Department of Labor’s Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) ... will issue an Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS) to implement” the requirement that “all employers with 100 or more employees to ensure their workforce is fully vaccinated or require any workers who remain unvaccinated to produce a negative test result on at least a weekly basis.” The White House webpage also stated that the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) would “require COVID-19 vaccinations for workers in most health care settings that receive Medicare or Medicaid reimbursement..., apply[ing] to approximately 50,000 providers and cover[ing] a majority of health care workers across the country.”<sup>11</sup>

70. Even though natural immunity from prior COVID-19 infection is better than, or at least no worse than, immunity conferred by the vaccine,<sup>12</sup> Defendants have failed to provide for any exemptions for persons who have already been infected with COVID-19.

71. Before September 2021, Defendants’ consistent position had been that the federal government lacks the authority Defendants are now claiming to possess. For example, at a July 23, 2021 press briefing, Psaki acknowledged that imposing vaccine mandates is “not the role of the federal government; that is the role that institutions, private-sector entities, and others may take.... What our role is and what we are going to continue to do is make the vaccine available. We’re going to continue to work in partnership to fight misinformation. And we’re going to continue to advocate and work in partnership with local officials and — and trusted voices to get the word out.”<sup>13</sup> Similarly, on December 4, 2020, in response to a question about whether COVID-19 vaccines should be made mandatory, then-President-Elect Biden said “[n]o, I don’t think it should be mandatory. I wouldn’t demand it to be mandatory.”<sup>14</sup>

The Contractor Mandate

72. On September 9, 2021, President Biden signed EO 14042 imposing on federal contractors “COVID [s]afety [p]rotocols” to be established and issued by the SFWTF by September 24, 2021.<sup>15</sup> The EO did not explicitly make any provision for religious or medical exemptions to the “safety protocols.” While EO 14042 did not specifically call for a vaccine mandate, it did purport to delegate rulemaking authority to the SFWTF, OMB, and the Federal Acquisition and Regulatory Council (the “FAR Council”).

73. On September 24, 2021 the SFWTF released on its website guidance to federal agencies for implementing Defendants’ vaccine mandate on contractors and subcontractors (the “Contractor Mandate”).<sup>16</sup> This guidance was never published to the 2 following:

- 3 • A deadline of December 8, 2021 for “covered contractor employees” to be fully 4 vaccinated.
- 5 • A deadline of November 24, 2021 for employees of contractors or subcontractors to 6 receive their final vaccination (or only vaccination, in the case of the Johnson & 7 Johnson vaccine), because the guidance defines “fully vaccinated” to mean two 8 weeks after receiving the requisite number of doses of an approved COVID-19 9 vaccine. The guidance defines “fully vaccinated” to include vaccines approved only 10 by EUA.
- 11 • A definition of the term “covered contractor employee” to “include[] employees of 12 covered contractors who are not themselves working on or in connection with a 13 covered contract” if they are working at the same location, thus imposing vaccine 14 requirements on employees of contractors and subcontractors who are not even 15 working on federal contracts.
- 16 • A requirement that the Federal Acquisition Regulatory Council (“FAR Council”) 17 conduct rulemaking to amend the Federal Acquisition Regulation (“FAR”) to 18 impose the Contractor Mandate.
- 19 • A deadline of October 8, 2021 for the FAR Council to develop a contract clause to 20 implement the Contractor Mandate for agencies to include in contracts. The 21 guidance also instructs the FAR Council to “recommend that agencies exercise their 22 authority to deviate from the FAR” and use the vaccination mandate clause in 23 contracts even before the FAR is amended.

- 1 • A deadline of October 15, 2021 for agencies to include that contractual clause in
- 2 solicitations
- 3 • A deadline of November 14, 2021 after which awarded contracts must include that
- 4 contractual clause. For contracts entered into between October 15 and November 14
- 5 and for which the solicitation was issued before October 15, the guidance states that
- 6 agencies are encouraged to include the clause, but are not required to do so.
- 7 • A requirement that, for contracts awarded “prior to October 15 and where
- 8 performance is ongoing”, the vaccine mandate clause “must be incorporated at the
- 9 point at which an option is exercised or an extension is made.”
- 10 • Requirements that the Contractor Mandate must apply even to: 1) persons who have
- 11 already been infected with COVID-19; 2) workplace locations that are outdoors;
- 12 and 3) contractor employees who are working remotely full time.
- 13 • A statement asserting that the guidance supersedes legal requirements in States or
- 14 localities that prohibit vaccine mandates.

15 74. On September 28, 2021, Shalanda Young, the Acting Director of the Office 16 of Management and Budget published a notice in the Federal Register<sup>17</sup> in which Ms.
 17 Young made the conclusory contention that “compliance with COVID–19-related safety 18 protocols improves economy and efficiency by reducing absenteeism and decreasing labor 19 costs for contractors and subcontractors working on or in connection with a Federal 20 Government contract.” She further stated that she had “determined that compliance by 21 Federal contractors and subcontractors with the COVID–19-workplace safety protocols 22 detailed in [the SFWTF] guidance will improve economy and efficiency by reducing 23 absenteeism and decreasing labor costs for contractors and subcontractors working on or 24 in connection with a Federal Government contract.”

1           75. Ms. Young did not cite to any information or evidence that would support 2 the claims in her determination, nor did she explain how she reached her conclusion. Nor 3 did she mention, much less explain, why she had rejected any other alternatives, such as 4 weekly testing or exemptions for persons naturally immune to COVID-19 because of a 5 prior infection. Furthermore, Ms. Young's notice was not subject to public commenting.
6 Notably, however, Ms. Young's determination did not claim there were any urgent and 7 compelling circumstances in this case, and her Federal Register notice did not include a 41 8 U.S.C. § 1707(d) waiver of the Procurement Policy Act requirement that a procurement 9 policy may not take effect until 60 days after it is published for public comment in the 10 Federal Register. Nor did Ms. Young's notice invoke the good cause exception (5 U.S.C.
11 § 553(b)(3)(B)) to the APA's notice-and-comment requirements.

12           76. On September 30, 2021, the FAR Council issued Class Deviation Clause 13 252.223-7999 (the "FAR Deviation Clause"), along with accompanying guidance. The 14 FAR Deviation Clause cites EO 14042 as the single authority for the deviation and contains 15 little substantive content other than requiring federal contractors to follow SFWTF 16 Guidance posted on the SFWTF website at 17 <https://www.saferfederalworkforce.gov/contractors> and to follow any future amendments 18 to the guidance posted on the SFWTF website. In issuing the FAR Deviation Clause, the 19 FAR Council did not provide notice or opportunity for public comment, as required by 41 20 U.S.C. § 1707. A true and correct copy of the FAR Deviation Clause and guidance is 21 attached as Exhibit 1.

22           77. A deviation is a clause that is inconsistent with the FAR. FAR § 1.401. The 23 FAR prescribes procedures for making individual deviations and class deviations. Id. §§ 24 1.403-04. Deviations are not an appropriate method for implementing a government-wide 25 procurement policy, and "[w]hen an agency knows that it will require a class deviation on 26 a permanent basis, it should propose a FAR revision." Id. § 1.404.

1           78. On November 10, 2021, the SFWTF issued updated contractor guidance.<sup>18</sup> 2           The updated guidance substantially follows the prior guidance and is attached hereto as 3           Exhibit 2. Among other things, the new guidance omits the previous guidance's 4           "Frequently Asked Questions" ("FAQ") section and instead provides a link to a new 5           version of the SFWTF contractor FAQ on the SFWTF website, at 6           <https://www.saferfederalworkforce.gov/faq/contractors/>. Attached as Exhibit 3 is a true 7           and correct copy of the SFWTF contractor FAQ that was captured on November 19, 2021.

8           79. On November 10, 2021, Defendant Young, Acting Director of the OMB, 9           issued for publication in the Federal Register a notice titled "Determination of the Acting 10          OMB Director Regarding the Revised Safer Federal Workforce Task Force Guidance for 11          Federal Contractors and the Revised Economy & Efficiency Analysis." The notice was 12          published in the Federal Register on November 16, 2021. 86 Fed. Reg. 63418 (Nov. 16, 13          2021). Attached as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of that notice (the "Second OMB 14          Notice"). The Second OMB Notice attempts to justify the Contractor Mandate as 15          promoting economy and efficiency in procurement. It also re-publishes the SFWTF 16          contractor guidance of November 10, 2021. It also disclaims the applicability of the notice-17          and-comment requirements of 41 U.S.C. § 1707 and of the APA, but also claims that if 18          they do apply, "urgent and compelling circumstances" justify departure from the 19          requirements of Section 1707, and the "good cause" exception applies to the APA's 20          requirements.

21          80. The Second OMB Notice makes only a weak, pretextual attempt to establish 22          a nexus with economy and efficiency. Indeed, before it makes any mention of economy 23          and efficiency, or even of procurement at all, it explicitly states that its actual main 24          objective is to achieve public health goals, specifically, "to get more people vaccinated."

86 Fed. Reg. at 63418. It claims, without evidence, that the Contractor Mandate will “decrease worker absence, reduce labor costs, and improve the efficiency of contracts and subcontractors. Id. It further makes the circular argument that, because some private businesses have imposed vaccine mandates, those private businesses’ vague justifications somehow also justify the federal government’s vague justifications Id. at 63421. This reasoning is upside-down, however, as the vast majority of businesses in the United States do not impose vaccine mandates. See infra ¶ 99. The fact that only a minority of businesses impose vaccine mandates thus reveals the pretextual nature of Defendants’ economy and efficiency claims. Furthermore, the Second OMB Notice claims that the Contractor Mandate will reduce the spread of COVID-19, yet the only evidence it cites in support of this claim is a study that was conducted before the Delta variant of COVID-19 became dominant and made no findings as to reductions in infection, but only found the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines reduce the severity of COVID-19 infection.<sup>19</sup>

81. The Second OMB Notice acknowledges that the Contractor Mandate will impose costs from “employees quitting” and also from “side effects from vaccination.” Id. at 63422. The Notice, however, makes no attempt to quantify these costs, and instead handwaves them away, claiming without evidence, that “we expect few employees to quit” and that vaccine side effects will be less costly than COVID-19 infection. Id. It claims that there are only “anecdotal reports” of employees quitting because of the Contractor Mandate and that “we know of no systematic evidence that this has been a widespread phenomenon, or that it would be likely to occur among employees of federal contractors.” Id. OMB did have, however “systematic evidence” that imposing the Contractor Mandate would likely

1 lead to loss of employees. The First Amended Complaint (“FAC”) in this case cited such 2 evidence. See, e.g., Doc 14 ¶ 83. The FAC was served by certified mail on Defendant 3 Young and on OMB, who both received it on November 1. (See Doc. 61 at 16 and 22.).

4 82. The Second OMB Notice was also deficient in that it did not contain the full 5 SFWTF contractor guidance that is binding on contractors who accept contracts with the 6 FAR Deviation Clause. The Clause requires that “[t]he Contractor shall comply with all 7 guidance, including guidance conveyed through Frequently Asked Questions, as 8 amended during the performance of this contract, for contractor or subcontractor workplace 9 locations published by the Safer Federal Workforce Task Force (Task Force Guidance) at 10 <https://www.saferfederalworkforce.gov/contractors/>.” The Second OMB Notice did not 11 contain the FAQ, which is only posted on the SFWTF website and is subject to change at 12 any time.

13 83. The omission of the FAQ is significant, as most of the sweeping reach of the 14 Contractor Mandate is only made clear in the FAQ. For example, the FAQ clarifies that 15 the Contractor Mandate applies to “[e]mployees who perform duties necessary to the 16 performance of the covered contract, but who are not directly engaged in performing the 17 specific work called for by the covered contract, such as human resources, billing, and legal 18 review.” Exhibit 3 at 12-13. Thus, employees who never work directly on a federal 19 contract; who never directly work with an employee working on a federal government 20 contract; or who never work in the same building or location as an employee who works 21 directly on a federal government contract are subject to the Contractor Mandate. The FAQ 22 also shows the sweeping breadth of the “locations” to which the Guidance applies. For 23 example, it is in the FAQ that Defendants state that the Contractor Mandate applies “to 24 contractor or subcontractor workplace locations that are outdoors.” Id. at 9. It is also in the 25 FAQ where Defendants command that even if a contractor’s employee works in an entirely 26 separate floor or area or even building or site, the employee is working in a “covered

1 contractor workplace” “unless a covered contractor can affirmatively determine that none 2 of its employees” in the separate area “will come into contact with a covered contractor 3 employee.” Id. at 9-10. “Contact,” the FAQ continues, includes “interactions” in “common 4 areas such as lobbies, security clearance areas, elevators, stairwells, meeting rooms, 5 kitchens, dining areas, and parking garages.” Id. And the FAQ is where it is stated that if 6 an employee is working completely remotely, but working on a covered federal contract, 7 the employee still “must comply with the vaccination requirement ... even if the employee 8 never works at either a covered contractor workplace or Federal workplace during the 9 performance of the contract.” Id. at 10. Thus, it is through the FAQ, which has still never 10 been published for notice and comment, that Defendants impose the most authoritarian and 11 sweeping aspects of the Contractor Mandate, ensnaring within its grasp almost any 12 employee of an organization with any kind of federal contract.

13 Federal Attempts To Impose The Contractor Mandate On Arizona

14 84. Federal authorities have already demanded that multiple Arizona State 15 agencies, including public universities, implement the Contractor Mandate and require that 16 their employees receive the COVI-19 vaccine. This creates a significant conflict, as 17 mandates are illegal under State law. See ¶ 58.

18 85. The Arizona Board of Regents (“ABOR”) oversees the management, 19 direction, and governance of Arizona’s three public universities: Arizona State University, 20 Northern Arizona University, and the University of Arizona. All three universities are 21 federal contractors, and for Fiscal Year 2021, their total federal revenues were 22 $1,207,926,800. Because they face the significant harm of losing more than a billion dollars 23 if they do not submit to the Contractor Mandate, ABOR and the three universities have 24 been actively engaged in efforts to comply with the Contractor Mandate. Attached as 25 Exhibit 5 is a signed declaration from John Arnold, who is ABOR’s Executive Director 26 that details these facts.

1           86. On October 18, 2021, Defendant GSA sent an email to the Arizona State 2 Retirement System (“ASRS”) demanding that ASRS implement the Contractor Mandate
3 on its employees. Statewide, ASRS has approximately 220 full-time equivalent employees 4 and 20 to 30 part-time contractors who would potentially be subject to the Contractor 5 Mandate. See Doc. 48-4, Declaration of Dawn Northup, which is hereby incorporated by 6 reference.

7           87. On November 2, 2021, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission 8 (“EEOC”) requested that the Division of Civil Rights Section (“DCRS”) of the Arizona 9 Attorney General’s Office (“AGO”) renew a contract and workshare agreement whereby 10 EEOC provides about $500,000 of funding to DCRS. However, the day before, on 11 November 1, 2021, EEOC had stated that “when the . . . contracts are executed, the 12 requirements of . . . Executive Order [14042] may take effect.” Statewide, the AGO has 13 1,010 employees who would potentially be subject to the Contractor Mandate. See Doc.
14 48-3 and 58-1, the First and Second Declarations of Rebekah Browder, which are hereby 15 incorporated by reference.

16           88. The Arizona Department of Transportation (“ADOT”) owns property that it 17 leases to the General Services Administration (“GSA”) for use by the Federal Motor 18 Carrier Safety Administration. The property is a port of entry in Nogales, Arizona, 19 designated as “State Port Annex” at N. Mariposa Road. GSA sent to ADOT a letter dated 20 October 14, 2021 stating that a contract modification imposing a vaccine mandate “is 21 mandatory and your acceptance is required in order to ensure compliance with E.O. 14042” 22 and that contract “modifications must be finalized by November 14, 2021.” (emphasis in 23 original.) Statewide, ADOT has approximately 3,650 employees who would potentially be 24 subject to the Contractor Mandate. Attached as Exhibit 6 is the Declaration of Sonya 25 Herrera, who is the Director of the Administrative Services Division of ADOT, further 26 detailing these facts.

1           89. On October 22, 2021, the CDC sent an email to the Arizona Department of 2 Health Services (“ADHS”) demanding that ADHS implement the Contractor Mandate and 3 requiring that ADHS “sign and return the modification via email to the Contracting Officer 4 of record by November 9, 2021.” Attached to the email was a spreadsheet that listed 5 covered contracts that CDC claimed were subject to its demand. Among those were two 6 ADHS contracts with the CDC with a total value of approximately $520,000. Statewide, 7 ADHS has approximately 1,500 employees who would potentially be subject to the 8 Contractor Mandate. Attached as Exhibit 7 is a signed declaration from Kevin Ray, who is 9 Education and Health Section Chief Counsel in the State Government Division of the 10 Office of the Attorney General of Arizona, further detailing these facts.

11           90. The Arizona Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) has a contract with the 12 National Park Service (“NPS”) to provide laboratory testing. On November 2, 2021, NPS 13 sent an email to DPS demanding that DPS sign a contract modification to incorporate the 14 Contractor Mandate. Statewide, DPS has approximately 2,100 employees who would 15 potentially be subject to the Contractor Mandate. Attached as Exhibit 8 is the Declaration 16 of Daniel Bergin, who is Transportation Section Chief Counsel in the State Government 17 Division of the Office of the Attorney General of Arizona, further detailing these facts.

18           91. The Arizona Department of Corrections, Rehabilitation, and Reentry 19 (“ADCRR”) has a contract with the U.S. Forest Service through which inmates perform 20 work on Forest Service land. On September 28, 2021, Jeremy Plain, District Ranger for the 21 Tonto National Forest, sent an email to personnel at ADCRR stating that persons 22 performing under the contract would be required to comply with new COVID-19 23 “safeguards,” including mandatory “vaccine certification.” The email concluded by stating 24 that “[w]e are very thankful for the work that the AZDOC crews provide for us and we 25 would like to continue utilizing them, but we have to follow the above policy.” On 26 November 15, 2021, Kristine Yaw, Deputy Chief Procurement Officer at ADCRR, sent a

1 letter to Mr. Plain stating that ADCRR “cannot facilitate the requirements at this time.”
 2 Statewide, ADCRR has approximately 9,500 full-time equivalent employees who would 3 potentially be subject to the Contractor Mandate. Attached as Exhibit 9 is the Declaration
 4 of Denel Pickering, who is the Chief Procurement Officer of ADCRR, further detailing 5 these facts.

6 The City of Phoenix And The Contractor Mandate

7 92. On November 18, 2021, Defendant City of Phoenix, citing the Contractor 8 Mandate, issued a notification informing its employees that they would be required to 9 receive the COVID-19 vaccine by January 18, 2022 or face discipline, up to and including 10 termination. Attached as Exhibit 10 is the Declaration of Michael Napier, which includes 11 a copy of the notification from the City of Phoenix.

12 93. The imposition of a vaccine mandate by Defendant City of Phoenix is in 13 violation of Arizona law, specifically A.R.S. §§ 23-206, § 36-114, and -184(C), and 14 Arizona Executive Orders.2021-18 and -19.

15 94. Upon information and belief, a significant number of rank and file police 16 officers and firefighters of Defendant City of Phoenix have expressed concerns over the 17 mandate and will refuse to be vaccinated. These officers and firefighters will face 18 significant discipline, up to and including termination.

19 The Federal Employee Mandate

20 95. On September 9, 2021 President Biden also signed an EO requiring that 21 “[e]ach agency shall implement ... a program to require COVID-19 vaccination for all of 22 its Federal employees” (the “Employee Mandate”).<sup>20</sup> The EO required the SFWTF to issue 23 guidance for agencies by September 16, 2021, and made no explicit provision for any 24 religious or medical exemptions to the vaccination requirement.

<sup>20</sup> Exec. Order No. 14043, 86 Fed. Reg. 50989, “Requiring Coronavirus Disease 2019 Vaccination for Federal Employees,” (Sept. 9, 2021) (emphasis added).

1           96. On September 16, 2021 the SFWTF updated the “Frequently Asked 2 Questions” (“FAQ”) section of its website,<sup>21</sup> ostensibly in an attempt to fulfill the EO’s 3 guidance requirement. Among other things, the updated FAQ included the following:

- 4           • A deadline of November 22, 2021 for federal employees to be “fully vaccinated” 5           and also after which new federal employees would need to be fully vaccinated 6           before starting work.
- 7           • A deadline of November 8, 2021 for employees to receive their final vaccination (or 8           only vaccination, in the case of the Johnson & Johnson vaccine), because the FAQ 9           defines “fully vaccinated” to mean “2 weeks after [employees] have received the 10          requisite number of doses of a[n approved] COVID-19 vaccine.” The FAQ defines 11          “fully vaccinated” as including vaccines approved only by EUA.
- 12          • Imposition of the Employee Mandate 1) for federal employees who are working 13          remotely full-time and thus do not pose any risk of exposing other federal employees 14          to COVID-19 and 2) for federal employees who have already been infected with 15          COVID-19 and thus already have natural immunity.
- 16          • A warning to agencies to allow exemptions from the Employee Mandate only “in 17          limited circumstances where the law requires an exception.” (emphasis added).

18           97. Attached as Exhibit 11 is a copy of the updated employee FAQ that was 19 captured on November 19, 2021. On information and believe, the SFWTF has never issued 20 official, formal guidance to agencies; has never published its guidance in the Federal 21 Register; and has not followed any notice-and-comment procedures before issuing its 22 guidance.

1     The Mandates Will Have Deep Economic And Political Significance

2           98.     The U.S. Department of Labor recognizes that “workers employed by 3     federal contractors” comprise “approximately one-fifth of the entire U.S. labor force.”<sup>22</sup> 4     Upon information and belief, this approximately reflects the proportions of the labor force 5     in Arizona subject to the Contractor Mandate.

6           99.     Upon information and belief, the vaccination mandates will cause a 7     significant proportion of unvaccinated federal and contractor employees to resign to avoid 8     the mandates. The Society for Human Resource Management conducted a survey of 9     businesses subject to Defendants’ Mandates and found that “85 percent said the 10    anticipated requirement will make retaining employees more difficult. Eighty-nine percent 11    said some of their employees will quit due to the new mandate.”<sup>23</sup> Similarly, a leading 12    trade publication covering the construction industry has predicted that more than 40% of 13    employees in the construction industry, “when faced with the choice between the vaccine 14    and their job with a federal contractor, will quit and go to work for another contractor that 15    does not have such a mandate”<sup>24</sup> In a tight labor market, these resignations will greatly 16    hurt productivity of the federal workforce and thus impair economy and efficiency.

17           100.    A recent survey from the Kaiser Family Foundation found that 72 percent of 18    unvaccinated workers say that they will quit rather than submit to a vaccine mandate.<sup>25</sup> vaccine-workers-quit/index.html.

1           101. Before Defendants announced their planned mandates, only 16% of a sample
 2 of 400 large employers had imposed COVID-19 vaccine mandates. After Defendants 3 announced their mandate plans, an additional 9% of the employers imposed mandates and 4 13% developed future plans to impose mandates. Thus, as of October 1, 2021, only a 25% 5 minority of large employers imposed vaccine mandates, and 60% had no plans to impose 6 a mandate. Additionally, the employers said they expected to lose 2% and 8% of their 7 employees because of vaccine mandates, either from employee resignations or 8 terminations.<sup>26</sup> Upon information and belief, the percentage of small business that impose 9 vaccine mandates, or that plan to impose such mandates, is even lower than 25%.

10           102. This employee resistance and sensitivity of the issues presented here was 11 further evidenced by the recent experience of Southwest Airlines Company. Southwest 12 Airlines had to cancel over 2000 flights over ten days in October as pilots refused to work 13 in the wake of the company's vaccine mandate and the pilot's union's suit to stop it.<sup>27</sup> 14 "The key driver for such cancellations is likely the COVID-19 vaccine mandate for its 15 employees. Southwest employees are expressing their concern in droves by 16 simultaneously and strategically using their sick time benefits."<sup>28</sup> What's more, estimates 17 indicated that such massive impact can be felt by the action of "just over 2 percent of their 18 employees being unavailable. This illustrates how vulnerable the airline is to organized 19 worker shortages even among a small group of potentially disgruntled employees."<sup>29</sup> And

1 the company would not have put a vaccine requirement in place but for the Biden 2 administration's mandate, as Southwest's CEO Gary Kelly has "never been in favor of 3 corporations imposing that kind of a mandate. I'm not in favor of that, never have been."<sup>30</sup> 4 In addition to being consumer airlines, "Southwest Airlines and American Airlines are 5 among the carriers that are federal contractors and subject to" the government contractor 6 mandate, so their employees may not utilize "regular Covid testing as an alternative to a 7 vaccination" as other large, non-contractor business employees may.<sup>31</sup> And while the 8 airline claimed weather and air traffic control issues as its official justification for the 9 unprecedented disruption in service, it was telling that in response, it dropped one of its 10 major enforcement mechanisms for the mandate: forced unpaid leave.<sup>32</sup>

11 103. According to Gallup, "[j]ust under one in five U.S. adults, 18%, can be 12 described as vaccine resistant. These Americans say they would not agree to be vaccinated 13 if a COVID-19 vaccine were available to them right now at no cost and that they are 14 unlikely to change their mind about it. The percentage holding these views has been stable 15 in recent months."<sup>33</sup>

16 104. On average, federal government spending accounts for 20% to 25% of the 17 U.S. economy, and has been even higher during the COVID-19 pandemic. Furthermore, 18 by Defendants' own estimates, the contractor and subcontractor mandates will affect 1 “millions” of individuals.<sup>34</sup> Defendants’ vaccine mandates thus have deep economic and 2 political significance.

3 The Vaccine Mandates Harm The State Of Arizona

4 105. Defendants’ actions directly injure the State’s sovereign, quasi-sovereign, 5 and proprietary interests by denying Arizona residents of the benefit of the Due Process 6 Clause.

7 106. Furthermore, because State agencies and political subdivisions qualify as 8 “government contractors,” see ¶¶ 82-89, the Contractor Mandate will harm the State of 9 Arizona in three ways. First, by requiring the State to violate the Constitution and Federal 10 and State law, see ¶¶ 42-58 and 148-213, or face the loss of federal funds and contracts.
11 Second, by causing State employees subject to the mandate to resign. In the current tight 12 labor market, this will cause significant harm to the State’s operations through the loss of 13 institutional knowledge and human capital. It will also cause the State to incur significant 14 recruitment, on-boarding, and training costs to replace lost employees. Third, because 15 vaccine mandates and public health more generally, are part of the police power reserved 16 to the States under the Tenth Amendment, the vaccine mandates harm the State’s sovereign 17 interests and concern in defending its statutes and seeing that they are faithfully executed.

18 107. On information and belief, a natural and predictable consequence of the 19 Contractor Mandate is that numerous employees may be fired, retire, or quit their jobs, 20 including employees of businesses within the State. This injures the State’s quasi-sovereign 21 interest in the economic well-being of its citizens. It further injures the State in that it will 22 likely increase the burden on the State’s unemployment insurance funds, and it will inflict 23 economic disruption on the State’s economy as a whole.

24 108. On information and belief, a natural and predictable consequence of the 25 Contractor Mandate is that employers who are critical to the supply chain, and are also 26

<sup>34</sup> <https://www.whitehouse.gov/covidplan/> (characterizing EO 14042 as a plan “[r]equiring [v]accinations for ... [m]illions of [c]ontractors”)

1 federal contractors, will likely lose significant numbers of employees. It is entirely 2 predictable, therefore, that the Contractor Mandate will exacerbate current supply chain 3 issues. As a result, prices will continue to rise and cause direct injuries to the State as a 4 purchaser. It will also harm its quasi-sovereign interest in the economic well-being of its 5 residents, who will suffer from further supply chain disruptions.<sup>35</sup>

6 109. Because the Contractor Mandate claims to supersede all contrary State law 7 Ex. 3 at 15, it injures Arizona's interest in setting its own laws regarding public health and 8 workplace issues that would otherwise apply to contractors within Arizona's borders, as 9 well as preempting State religious-liberty protections under the State Constitution and State 10 statute.

11 110. The Contractor Mandate requires employees to prove vaccination status with 12 documentation, and on information and belief, agencies of the State often possess such 13 documentation. A predictable consequence of the Contractor Mandate is thus to increase 14 the number of people seeking documentation from the Plaintiff States regarding 15 vaccination status. See Dep't of Commerce v. New York, 139 S. Ct. 2551, 2566 (2019). On 16 information and belief, that will increase costs to the State.

17 111. The combination of these effects injures the State's sovereign, quasi-18 sovereign, and proprietary interests.

19 The Vaccine Mandate Harms Plaintiff Al Reble

20 112. Because Plaintiff Al Reble is not eligible for a religious exemption and 21 because his medical exemption will almost certainly be denied, he will either be subject to 22 dismissal from his employment, or will suffer serious violations of his constitutional rights

3 The Vaccine Mandate Harms Plaintiff PLEA and United Phoenix Firefighters 4 Association Local 493, and Their Members

5 113. Plaintiffs PLEA and United Phoenix Firefighters Association Local 493, as 6 well as their members, are faced with a Catch-22 of either facing significant discipline, up 7 to and including termination, or having to suffer serious violations of their constitutional 8 rights to bodily integrity and to refuse medical treatment. Furthermore, the vaccine 9 mandate will infringe their rights under the EUA statute to refuse the vaccines.

10 ADDITIONAL LEGAL AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND RELATED TO 11 CLAIMS REGARDING CERTAIN DEFENDANTS' PAROLE POLICIES<sup>36</sup>

12 114. Driven by President Biden's campaign promises of lax immigration 13 enforcement and loose border security, Defendants have created a crisis at the southern 14 border leading to an unprecedented wave of unlawful immigration into the U.S.

15 115. Furthermore, federal immigration law requires that all arriving aliens, even 16 those claiming asylum, be detained pending a decision as to whether they have a valid basis 17 to enter the United States. See 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A); id. § 1225(b)(1)(B). This 18 requirement applies "whether or not" the alien presents himself at a "designated port of 19 arrival" or crosses the border illegally. Id. § 1225(a)(1)

20 116. As the Supreme Court recently explained, there is only one "circumstance[]" 21 under which" these arriving aliens "may be released" from detention: when the federal 22 government exercises its "temporary parole" authority. Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct.
 23 830, 844 (2018) (discussing 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A)). But that authority may be used 24

 26 <sup>36</sup> Because the allegations in this portion of the Complaint (Paragraphs 112-147) relate only to claims brought by Plaintiffs Brnovich and the State of Arizona, they are only being asserted by those Plaintiffs, and the other Plaintiffs take no position as to these paragraphs.

1 “only on a case-by-case basis” and only for “urgent humanitarian reasons or significant 2 public benefit.” 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A).

3 117. The Biden Administration is ignoring these requirements. It has released at 4 least 225,000 illegal border crossers since taking office,<sup>37</sup> including “[a]bout 50,000” 5 whom the government released without initiating immigration court proceedings as 6 required by law.<sup>38</sup> This practice was apparently authorized by “[g]uidance sent to border 7 patrol ... from agency leadership,” which has not been made public, and which appears to 8 claim broad “prosecutorial discretion” to ignore the requirements of the immigration 9 laws.<sup>39</sup>

10 118. Defendants’ favorable treatment of unauthorized aliens appears to be having 11 an effect. As Table 1 (taken from Defendants’ own website) shows, DHS encounters with 12 unauthorized aliens are at their highest level in years, and continually increasing.

Table 1: CPB Encounters With Unauthorized Aliens By Month

119. Recent reporting has confirmed DHS's own statistics: "U.S. authorities detained more than 1.7 million migrants along the Mexico border during the 2021 fiscal year that ended in September, and arrests by the Border Patrol soared to the highest levels

1 ever recorded, according to unpublished U.S. Customs and Border Protection data 2 obtained by The Washington Post.”<sup>40</sup>

3 120. While the Biden Administration has offered an array of shifting excuses, 4 those have continually been disproved, for example: “Illegal crossings began rising last 5 year but skyrocketed in the months after President Biden took office. As CBP arrests 6 increased this past spring, Biden described the rise as consistent with historic seasonal 7 norms. But the busiest months came during the sweltering heat of July and August, when 8 more than 200,000 migrants were taken into custody.”<sup>41</sup>

9 The Immigration And Nationality Act

10 121. “[T]he Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”) ... establishes a 11 comprehensive scheme for aliens’ exclusion from and admission to the United States.” 12 Moorhead v. United States, 774 F.2d 936, 941 (9th Cir. 1985). When aliens arrive in the 13 United States, either at a port of entry or when caught crossing the border illegally, they 14 are subject to 8 U.S.C. § 1225. Section 1225(b)(1) applies to aliens who are inadmissible 15 due to fraud, misrepresentation, or lack of valid documentation. See Jennings, 138 S. Ct.
 16 at 837. These aliens are ordered removed “without further hearing or review,” unless they 17 indicate an intention to apply for asylum. 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A)(i). In that case, an 18 immigration officer conducts an interview to determine if the alien has a credible fear of 19 persecution. § 1225(b)(1)(B)(ii). If the alien makes that showing, he “shall be detained for 20 further consideration of the application for asylum.” Id. (emphasis added), 21 122. Aliens not subject to Section 1225(b)(1) are governed by Section 1225(b)(2), 22 which requires that, unless an alien is “clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to be admitted,” 23 the alien “shall be detained” pending further immigration proceedings. § 1225(b)(2); see 24 Jennings, 138 S. Ct. at 837. Because Congress has mandated detention under both

1 subsection (b)(1) and subsection (b)(2), arriving aliens—other than those who are clearly 2 and beyond a doubt entitled to be admitted—are to be released only pursuant to the 3 government’s parole authority, which is described in 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A).

4 123. This parole authority may be used only “on a case-by-case basis” and only 5 for “urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit.” 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A).
 6 Other than parole, there are “no other circumstances under which aliens detained under 7 § 1225(b) may be released.” Jennings, 138 S. Ct. at 844; see also 8 C.F.R. § 208.30(f)(2) 8 (explaining that Section 1182(d)(5) is the only basis for releasing an alien to which Section 9 1225(b)(1) applies); 8 C.F.R. § 212.5 (describing some of DHS’s parole practices).

10 124. Notably, the government’s parole authority previously was much broader, 11 and could then be used “for emergent reasons or for reasons deemed strictly in the public 12 interest.” Congress, however, substantially narrowed this provision in 1996, adding the 13 “case-by-case” requirement, changing “emergent reasons” to “urgent humanitarian 14 reasons,” and changing “strictly in the public interest” to require a “significant public 15 benefit.” See Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1997, 110 Stat. 3009–689; see 16 also Cruz-Miguel v. Holder, 650 F.3d 189, 199 n.15 (2d Cir. 2011) (explaining that “this 17 change was animated by concern that parole under § 1182(d)(5)(A) was being used by the 18 executive to circumvent congressionally established immigration policy”).

19 125. Mandatory detention aside, the government is also required to initiate 20 removal proceedings against these aliens. The government does so by serving the alien 21 with a charging document, which is the document that initiates proceedings in immigration 22 court. For ordinary removal proceedings, this document is called a “notice to appear.” See 23 8 C.F.R. § 1239.1(a).<sup>42</sup>

24
 25 <sup>42</sup> See

26 <https://www.justice.gov/sites/default/files/eoir/legacy/2013/01/22/Expedited%20Removal%20-%20English%20%2817%29.pdf>, at 1–2 (discussing other similar charging documents).

126. For aliens falling under Section 1225(b)(1) who do not seek to claim asylum, an immigration officer “shall order the alien removed ... without further hearing or review.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A)(i). For aliens who claim asylum but fail the credible-fear screening, immigration officers likewise “shall order the alien removed ... without further hearing or review.” Id. at § 1225(b)(1)(B)(iii)(I). And even for aliens who pass a credible fear screening, they still must be served with a charging document. USCIS admits this.<sup>43</sup> The same is true of aliens falling under Section 1225(b)(2). These aliens must be “detained for a proceeding under Section 1229a,” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A), which is the statutory provision governing ordinary removal proceedings. See Jennings, 138 S. Ct. at 837.

Defendants Have Created A Crisis At The Border

127. Defendants have dismantled much of the country’s border enforcement infrastructure, for example, 1) by imposing a near-moratorium on alien removals through a memorandum issued on January 20, 2021, through interim guidance issued by DHS on February 18, 2021, and then through similar permanent guidance issued on September 30, 2021; 2) by abandoning the Migrant Protection Protocols (MPP) requiring that aliens from third countries requesting asylum at the border with Mexico must wait in Mexico while awaiting adjudication of their asylum application<sup>44</sup>; and 3) by abandoning construction of already-planned and funded border wall and fencing. Defendants’ actions have led to an

The Biden Administration has expressly adopted this November 2011 guidance. See https://www.dhs.gov/sites/default/files/publications/21\_0120\_enforcement-memo\_signed.pdf, at 5.

<sup>44</sup> Defendants’ attempt to abandon MPP was enjoined by a district court, and both the Fifth Circuit and U.S. Supreme Court have denied the federal government’s requests for a stay pending appeal. See Biden v. Texas, No. 21A21, 2021 WL 3732667 (Aug. 24, 2021); State v. Biden, No. 21-10806, 2021 WL 3674780, at *1 (5th Cir. Aug. 19, 2021).

1 enormous increase in attempted border crossings by eliminating disincentives to being 2 caught.

3 128. DHS's own statistics reveal the unprecedented surge of unlawful migration 4 and the collapse of DHS's control of the border. July 2021 had the highest number of 5 encounters in decades—"the highest monthly encounter number since Fiscal Year 6 2000."<sup>45</sup> DHS data show that the number of border encounters in July 2021 was more than 7 five times the July 2020 and July 2018 numbers, and roughly 2.5 times July 2019.<sup>46</sup> DHS 8 itself has admitted that it is "encountering record numbers of noncitizens ... at the border" 9 that "have strained DHS operations and caused border facilities to be filled beyond their 10 normal operating capacity."<sup>47</sup>

11 129. Reporting by the Washington Post on October 20 reveals internal DHS data 12 showing that apprehensions at the southwest border "soared to the highest levels ever 13 recorded."<sup>48</sup>

14 130. Secretary of Homeland Security Alejandro Mayorkas acknowledged in 15 August 2021 that the Department of Homeland Security has lost control of the border, 16 lamenting that the current situation is "unsustainable," that it "cannot continue," that the 17 system is getting close to "breaking," and that "we're going to lose."<sup>49</sup>

26 'unsustainable' and 'we're going to lose' in leaked audio," Fox News (Aug. 13, 2021), <https://www.foxnews.com/politics/mayorkas-leaked-audio-border>.

131. Defendants are systematically violating the detention and removal requirements of Section 1225. Moreover, they are also ignoring the INA’s limitations on the authority to parole aliens into the United States. For the entire month of December 2020—President Trump’s last full month in office—the Border Patrol released into the interior only 17 aliens after arresting them crossing the Southwest border and serving them with a notice to appear.<sup>50</sup> By July 2021, that number had risen to over 60,000, and the total number of unlawful aliens that Border Patrol has released at the border since President Biden took office is over 225,000.<sup>51</sup>

132. Releasing this many arriving aliens into the interior necessarily means that the government is violating Congress’s commands in the INA. If immigration officials are simply releasing these aliens, they are violating the mandatory detention provisions in Section 1225. If they are, instead, paroling each of these individuals, they are not limiting the use of parole to “case-by-case bas[e]s” nor to situations presenting “urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit.” 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A).

133. It is also unclear whether the numbers reported by CBP include the approximately “50,000 migrants who crossed the southern border illegally” and were released without even being served with a notice to appear.<sup>52</sup> For these unlawful aliens, and likely many more, the government has instead served them with a “notice to report,” a document nowhere mentioned in statute or regulation, which apparently functions as

<sup>51</sup> The low number in December 2020 was not caused by COVID-19, as the number in January 2020 was only 76. See <https://www.cbp.gov/newsroom/stats/custody-and-transfer-statistics-fy-2020> (U.S. Border Patrol – Dispositions and Transfers tab). In addition, because the total number of releases reported here likely does not include releases by other DHS components, the total is probably even larger.

<sup>52</sup> <https://www.axios.com/migrant-release-no-court-date-ice-dhs-immigration-33d258ea-2419-418d-abe8-2a8b60e3c070.html>

1 “immigration enforcement by the honor system.”<sup>53</sup> Predictably, although the notice to 2 report asks these aliens to turn themselves into an ICE office within 60 days, approximately 3 80% fail to do so.<sup>54</sup>

4 134. Border Patrol documents that were leaked to the press in October 2021 show 5 that Defendants have released “[a]t least 160,000 illegal immigrants ... into the U.S. [since 6 March 2021], often with little to no supervision.” The documents also show that 7 Defendants have made “broad use of limited parole authorities to make more than 30,000 8 eligible for work permits since August [2021]” and that since August 6, 2021, “the 9 administration has released an additional 40,000 illegal immigrants on their own 10 recognizance.”<sup>55</sup>

11 135. Beyond Defendants’ failed honor-system policy, serving a notice to report 12 has other significant consequences. Most importantly, once a charging document is served, 13 an alien who fails to appear for his removal proceedings and instead absconds can be 14 “ordered removed in absentia.” Texas v. Biden, __ F. Supp. 3d __, 2021 WL 3603341, at 15 *4 (N.D. Tex. 2021). After this occurs, the alien can be quickly and easily removed 16 whenever DHS locates him because he already has a final order of removal. By contrast, 17 DHS cannot obtain a final order of removal for an alien who declines to report following 18 issuance of a notice to report—again, because this document has no legal significance and 19 is nowhere to be found in statute or regulation.

20 136. And, as further explained below, even aliens who are served with charging 21 documents frequently do not appear for their removal proceedings. The Biden Administration is thus giving tens-of-thousands of aliens per month, in essence, license to disappear into the interior of the United States.

137. DHS’s illegal use of its parole to promote open-border policies is consistent with multiple other violations of immigration mandates by the Biden Administration, as courts have repeatedly held. See, e.g., Texas v. United States, --- F. Supp. 3d ---, 2021 WL 2096669, at *38 (S.D. Tex. 2021) (finding the government in violation of the mandatory removal provision in 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(A)); Texas v. United States, --- F. Supp. 3d ---, 2021 WL 3683913, at *42 (S.D. Tex. 2021) (finding the government in violation of the mandatory detention provisions in 8 U.S.C. §§ 1231(a)(2) & 1226(c)).<sup>56</sup>

138. The Administration has even been found to have violated Section 1225(b)’s detention requirements, the same requirements Arizona claims the government is violating here. See Texas v. Biden, 10 F.4th 538, 552 (5th Cir. 2021) (denying a stay because “the Government has not come close to showing that it is likely to succeed in challenging” the conclusion that it violated 8 U.S.C. § 1225).<sup>57</sup>

139. In those cases, the Biden Administration insisted it lacked the resources to comply with its duties. See, e.g., Mot. for Stay at 4, Texas, 2021 WL 3683913 (claiming that “ICE lacks the resources, including appropriated funds and bedspace, to detain all noncitizens potentially implicated by the injunction”).

140. Meanwhile, the Biden Administration is going out of its way to make its bad-faith protests about limited resources closer to reality. For example, the Administration has

<sup>56</sup> A panel of the Fifth Circuit stayed that preliminary injunction in part, but declined to stay the injunction insofar as it required the federal government not to release aliens subject to those two statutes. See Texas v. United States, --- F.4th ---, 2021 WL 4188102, at *3 (5th Cir. 2021).

<sup>57</sup> The Supreme Court also denied the government a stay. See Biden v. Texas, --- S. Ct. ---, 2021 WL 3732667 (Aug. 24, 2021)

1 asked Congress to reduce the number of immigration detention beds available to it.<sup>58</sup> It has 2 justified this request in part based on “recent decreases in interior enforcement activity.”<sup>59</sup>

3 141. Similarly, the Administration has eliminated programs designed to reduce 4 the taxing of immigration resources and detention space. For example, on its first day in 5 office, the Biden Administration suspended the Migrant Protection Protocols. Biden, 2021 6 WL 3603341 at *7. This DHS program “returned some aliens temporarily to Mexico during 7 the pendency of their removal proceedings.” Id. at *1. As CBP’s statistics show, the 8 Migrant Protection Protocols were effective at eliminating the illegal release of arriving 9 aliens at the border because aliens remained in Mexico pending adjudication of their 10 asylum claims rather than occupying DHS detention capacity.<sup>60</sup> See also Biden, 2021 WL 11 3603341 at *5 (discussing an October 2019 assessment of the program, in which DHS 12 found this policy “effective[]” and an “indispensable tool in addressing the ongoing crisis 13 at the southern border”). Unlike the Biden Administration’s release policies, this program 14 is expressly authorized by the immigration laws, which provide that “[i]n the case of an 15 alien ... who is arriving on land (whether or not at a designated port of arrival) from a 16 foreign territory contiguous to the United States,” DHS “may return the alien to that 17 territory pending a [removal] proceeding.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(C).

18 142. And President Biden has revoked Executive Orders expressly aimed at 19 eliminating “catch and release,” a colloquialism for the unlawful practices at issue here.

11 The Border Crisis Harms The State of Arizona

12 144. States “bear[] many of the consequences of unlawful immigration.” Arizona 13 v. United States, 567 U.S. 387, 397 (2012). They are, however, limited in their ability to 14 “engage in” their own immigration “enforcement activities.” Id. at 410. Arizona thus relies 15 significantly on the federal government to fulfill its duties under the immigration laws, 16 particularly when Congress has created mandatory obligations or otherwise limited the 17 federal government’s discretion.

18 145. As a border state, Arizona is acutely affected by modifications in federal 19 policy regarding immigration. Arizona is required to expend its scarce resources when 20 DHS fails to carry out its statutory duty to detain or remove aliens as provided by law. This 21 includes resources expended by Arizona’s law enforcement community.

22 146. Arizona bears substantial costs of incarcerating unauthorized aliens, which 23 amounts to tens of millions of dollars each year, as reflected by Arizona’s State Criminal 24

 26 <sup>61</sup> Immigration Detenting: Opportunities Exist to Improve Cost Estimates, United States Government Accountability Office (April 2018), <https://www.gao.gov/assets/gao-18-343.pdf>.

1 Assistance Program (“SCAAP”) requests, the great majority of which are not reimbursed 2 by the federal government.

3 147. Defendants’ actions encourage a greater influx of unauthorized aliens into 4 Arizona, further increasing law enforcement costs in Arizona, including costs related to 5 coordinated activity between federal and state law enforcement agencies in the pursuit of 6 suspected unauthorized aliens.

7 148. Federal law also requires that emergency medical services be provided to 8 unlawfully present aliens. 42 C.F.R. § 440.255(c). Arizona emergency medical providers 9 deliver millions of dollars in medical services to unlawfully present aliens each year. These 10 costs are not fully reimbursed by the federal government or the aliens themselves. While 11 these costs are impactful in typical years, the COVID-19 pandemic makes the potential for 12 harm to Arizona through additional emergency healthcare costs to unauthorized aliens 13 exceptionally high. Defendants’ failure to detain or remove aliens, and Defendants’ 14 unlawful use of parole to allow hundreds of thousands of aliens to enter the United States, 15 necessarily increases the number of unlawfully present aliens in Arizona who are subject 16 to receiving such medical care at the expense of Arizona’s healthcare institutions.

17 149. Defendants’ failures to remove or detain aliens, and Defendants’ unlawful 18 use of parole to allow hundreds of thousands of aliens to enter the United States, will 19 increase Arizona’s costs of providing emergency medical care to these individuals who 20 would otherwise be removed or detained. Additionally, Defendants’ actions encourage a 21 greater influx of unauthorized aliens into Arizona, further increasing the population of 22 unauthorized aliens for whom Arizona must bear the cost of emergency medical care.

Violation of the Procurement Act

(Asserted Under 40 U.S.C. §§ 101 and 121,

5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 704, and 706, and as a non-statutory cause of action)

150. The allegations in the preceding paragraphs are reincorporated herein.

151. There is no nexus between Defendant's vaccine mandates and the Procurement Act's purpose of providing an "economical and efficient system" of procurement, 40 U.S.C. § 101 and in fact will have a deleterious effect on economy and efficiency by causing large-scale resignations of unvaccinated employees of federal contractors.

152. The purpose of the Procurement Act is not to impose a sweeping vaccination mandate on broad swaths of the American people or to use the federal procurement system as a proxy for implementing a nationwide public health mandate.

153. Defendants' attempt to impose sweeping controls on one-fourth of the economy via procurement is a question of deep economic and political significance, and Congress did not intend, nor does the Procurement Act allow, the President to exercise such sweeping authority under the guise of "procurement" in the absence of clear and explicit congressional authorization. Such arrogation of power violates the Major Questions Doctrine. This is because had Congress intended to give the Executive or its agencies discretion to decide which kinds of vaccinations for what malaises should be mandatory to which categories of people, then Congress would have legislated to that effect. After all, Congress does not upend or even "alter the fundamental details of a regulatory scheme in vague terms or ancillary provisions—it does not, one might say, hide elephants in mouseholes." Whitman v. American Trucking Ass'ns, 531 U.S. 457, 468

1 (2001). “It is especially unlikely that Congress would have delegated this decision to” the 2 Executive (especially the SFWTF), which lacks “expertise in crafting” sensible rules “of 3 this sort” in the absence of clear statutory guidance. King, 576 U.S. at 486 (citing Gonzales
4 v. Oregon, 546 U.S. 243, 266–67 (2006)). Nowhere do the federal procurement statutes 5 authorize the President to take over more than one-quarter of our national economy—and 6 to do so flying solo, without congressional authorization. And in the absence of such 7 authorization, the President certainly is not entitled, with the stroke of his own pen, to 8 displace state law or preclude state authority in an area of State police powers such as 9 public health.

10 154. Before the executive branch may regulate a major policy question of “great 11 and economic and political significance”—such as mandating vaccination for every 12 employee of every federal contractor in the country—Congress must “speak clearly” to 13 assign the authority to implement such a policy. Ala. Ass’n of Realtors v. Dep’t of Health
14 & Hum. Servs., 141 S. Ct. 2485, 2489 (2021) (citing Util. Air Regul. Grp. v. E.P.A., 573 15 U.S. 302, 324 (2014)). When the federal government intrudes on a traditional state 16 function, it must clearly articulate the scope of the intrusion and the rationale behind its 17 unprecedented action, which it has not done here. Gregory v. Ashcroft, 501 U.S. 452, 463– 18 64 (1991).

19 155. Furthermore, the Contractor Mandate unequivocally and severely will 20 damage economy and efficiency because it will lead to a mass exodus of the employees of 21 federal contractors.

22 156. The reach of the Contractor Mandate is too broad to be consistent with the 23 Procurement Act. Even assuming that more vaccinated employees would promote 24 efficiency “by reducing absenteeism and decreasing labor costs,” as OMB said, 86 Fed.
25 Reg. 53,692, and even assuming that the Contractor Mandate would not cause widespread 26 resignations or dismissals of employees, the Contractor Mandate’s overbreadth makes

1 plain that its real purpose is not to achieve economy and efficiency, since it applies to 2 employees who work remotely and employees who have the most fleeting interactions with 3 employees working on federal contracts. Such breadth is unnecessary to prevent the spread 4 of COVID-19, and so completely unconnected with any possible rationale relating to 5 economy and efficiency.

6 157. Additionally, the Contractor Mandate's application to subcontractors has no 7 direct connection to federal procurement and thus lies outside the Procurement Act.

8 158. And because even vaccinated individuals can spread COVID-19, the 9 contractor vaccine mandate, insofar as it seeks to promote economy and efficiency by 10 limiting the spread of the virus is not appropriately tailored to achieve its goals.

11 159. Defendants' mandate on sub-contractors has no direct connection to federal 12 procurement and thus does not lie reasonably within the contemplation of the Procurement 13 Act.

14 160. Defendants' vaccine mandates for contractors and subcontractors are 15 therefore unlawful under the Procurement Act.

 24 41 U.S.C. § 1707(a).

25 163. The SFWTF FAQ, the FAR Deviation Clause, and the Second OMB Notice 26 relate to the expenditure of appropriated funds; have a significant effect beyond internal 1 operating procedures; and impose a significant cost and administrative impact on 2 contractors and offerors.

3 164. Defendants failed to publish for public comment in the Federal Register the 10 166. Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the Procurement 11 Policy Act when issuing the SFWTF contractor FAQ and FAR Deviation Clause. The 12 SFWTF FAQ and the FAR Deviation Clause are therefore unlawful. Inasmuch as the 13 SFWTF FAQ and the FAR Deviation Clause are integral parts of the Contractor Mandate, 14 the entire mandate is unlawful and “may not take effect.” 41 U.S.C. § 1707. Furthermore,

2 States.

3 177. Defendants, through the Contractor Mandate, have exercised power far 4 beyond what was delegated to the federal government by Constitutional mandate or 5 congressional action.

6 178. Neither Article II of the U.S. Constitution nor any act of Congress authorizes 7 the federal agencies of the executive branch to implement the Contractor Mandate, which 8 to the extent any power exists to implement, traditionally falls under the police power left 9 to the states under the Tenth Amendment.

10 179. The Tenth Amendment explicitly preserves the “residuary and inviolable 11 sovereignty,” of the states. Printz v. United States, 521 U.S. 898, 918–19 (1997) (quoting 12 The Federalist No. 39, at 245 (J. Madison)).

13 180. By interfering with the traditional balance of power between the states and 14 the federal government and by acting pursuant to ultra vires federal action, Defendants 15 violated this “inviolable sovereignty,” and thus, the Tenth Amendment.

11 (Contractor Mandate)

12 (Asserted Under the APA, 5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 704, and 706)

13 192. The allegations in the preceding paragraphs are reincorporated herein.

14 193. Under the APA, a court must “hold unlawful and set aside agency action” 15 that is “arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with 16 law” or “in excess of statutory ... authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right.” 5 17 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A), Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 553, agencies must publish “a notice of 18 proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register before promulgating a rule that has legal 19 force.” Little Sisters of the Poor Saints Peter & Paul Home v. Pennsylvania, 140 S.Ct.
20 2367, 2384 (2020); 5 U.S.C. § 553(b).

21 194. Pursuant to 48 C.F.R. 1.501, “significant revisions” to the FAR must be made 22 through notice-and-comment procedures. DOD, NASA, and the General Services 23 Administration must jointly conduct the notice-and-comment process. Id.

24 195. Instead of amending the FAR to implement this significant revision, the FAR 25 Council issued a purported “class deviation” without engaging in the notice-and-comment 26 process. See, 5 U.S.C. § 553.

1           196. Proper “class deviations” must fit within one of the discrete definitions set 2 forth in 48 C.F.R 1.401.

3           197. Here, however, the FAR Deviation Clause fits none of the definitions.

4           198. Instead, the FAR Deviation Clause is in the nature of a rule within the 5 meaning of the APA because it is “an agency statement of general or particular applicability 6 and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy.” 5 U.S.C. § 7 551(4).

8           199. The FAR Council violated the APA by failing to comply with the notice-and-9 comment requirements for rulemaking.

10          200. The OMB Determination adopting the Task Force guidance is contrary to 11 law for at least four reasons.

12          201. First, the OMB Determination violates 41 U.S.C. § 1303(a) because it is a 13 government-wide procurement regulation, which only the FAR Council may issue.

14          202. EO 14042 apparently seeks to circumvent § 1303 by delegating the 15 President’s Procurement Act power to the OMB Director.

16          203. That attempt is unlawful because the President has no authority to issue 17 regulations under § 1303—only the FAR Council may issue government-wide 18 procurement regulations. See, Centralizing Border Control Policy Under the Supervision 19 of the Attorney General, 26 Op. OLC 22, 23 (2002) (“Congress may prescribe that a 20 particular executive function may be performed only by a designated official within the 21 Executive Branch, and not by the President.”).

22          204. Second, and relatedly, the OMB rule is contrary to law because the 23 Procurement Act does not grant the President the power to issue orders with the force or 24 effect of law. Congress authorized the President to “prescribe policies and directives that 25 the President considers necessary to carry out.” 40 U.S.C. § 121(a).
26

1           205. “[P]olicies and directives” describe the President’s power to direct the 2 exercise of procurement authority throughout the government. It does not authorize the 3 President to issue regulations himself.

4           206. Congress knows how to confer that power, as it authorized the GSA 5 Administrator, in the same section of the statute, to “prescribe regulations.” Id. § 121(c); 6 see also Sosa v. Alvarez-Machain, 542 U.S. 692, 711 n.9 (2004) (“[W]hen the legislature 7 uses certain language in one part of the statute and different language in another, the court 8 assumes different meanings were intended.”).

9           207. And Congress has given the President the power to “prescribe regulations” 10 in other contexts, typically in the realm of foreign affairs and national defense. See, e.g., 11 18 U.S.C. § 3496 (“The President is authorized to prescribe regulations governing the 12 manner of executing and returning commissions by consular officers.”); 32 U.S.C. § 110 13 (“The President shall prescribe regulations, and issue orders, necessary to organize, 14 discipline, and govern the National Guard.”).

15           208. Third, even if the Procurement Act authorized the President to issue orders 16 with the force or effect of law, it would not authorize approval of the SFWTF guidance.
17 The President appears to assume that the Procurement Act’s prefatory statement of purpose 18 authorizes him to issue any order that he believes promotes “an economical and efficient” 19 procurement system. 40 U.S.C. § 101.

20           209. In doing so, the President mistakenly construes the prefatory purpose 21 statement for a grant of authority. D.C. v. Heller, 554 U.S. 570, 578 (2008) (“[A]part from 22 [a] clarifying function, a prefatory clause does not limit or expand the scope of the operative 23 clause.”).

24           210. And even if the Procurement Act did authorize the President to issue binding 25 procurement orders solely because they may promote economy and efficiency, the OMB 26 Determination does not adequately do so. Providing the federal government with an

1 “economical and efficient system for” procurement is not a broad enough delegation to 2 impose a national-scale vaccine mandate that Congress has not separately authorized.

3 211. Further, the executive order is divorced from the practical needs of 4 procurement. In order to maintain a steady and predictable flow of goods and services—5 and the advancement of science and technology through research and development—the 6 federal procurement system requires a stable and reliable workforce to timely perform 7 work required under tens of thousands of federal contracts and funding agreements. The 8 Contractor Mandate disrupts the stability and reliability of the contractor workforce by 9 forcing contractors to potentially fire unvaccinated and non-exempt covered employees, 10 many of whom are highly skilled and essential to the work.

11 212. Because the OMB Determination violates § 1303(a), seeks to exercise a 12 delegated power the President does not possess, and relies on a misreading of the 13 Procurement Act, it is contrary to law.

14 213. Pursuant to 48 C.F.R. 1.402, “[u]nless precluded by law, executive order, or 15 regulation, deviations from the FAR may be granted [] when necessary to meet the specific 16 needs and requirements of each agency.”

17 214. The Contractor Mandate and the OMB Determination were implemented 18 with no express findings, no explanation, and no consideration of the distinct and diverse 19 universe of federal agencies.

20 215. The Contractor Mandate and the OMB Determination impose universal and 21 uniform requirements without regard to the particularized needs and circumstances of each 22 federal agency and are therefore arbitrary and capricious in violation of the APA.

218. Defendants’ policy—whether codified in writing or not<sup>62</sup>—of refusing to detain arriving aliens is contrary to the mandatory detention provisions in 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)–(2). And if Defendants claim to be exercising their parole authority, their policy is contrary to 8 U.S.C. § 1182 because that authority is neither being used “on a case-by-case basis” nor limited to situations presenting “urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit.” 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)(A).

219. Nor does any regulation authorize Defendants’ policy. 8 C.F.R. § 212.5—the principal parole regulation—says nothing about the mass release of arriving aliens. And even if there were a regulation authorizing that conduct, it would be invalid given the plain text of Sections 1225(b) and 1182(d)(5)(A).

220. Moreover, for the reasons described in ¶¶ 123–24, Defendants are required at a minimum to issue charging documents to arriving aliens released into the interior and initiate removal proceedings, which the Biden Administration has failed to do at least 50,000 times since taking office.

25 <sup>63</sup> The Eleventh Circuit granted rehearing en banc of that decision and did not reach the 26 merits of the APA claims. See Jean v. Nelson, 727 F.2d 957 (11th Cir. 1984) (en banc). But the reason the en banc court did not address the notice-and-comment argument is because the federal government conducted notice and comment in response to the panel opinion. Id. at 984.

COUNT XII

BY PLAINTIFFS BRNOVICH AND STATE OF ARIZONA ONLY

Agency Action Unlawfully Withheld or Unreasonably Delayed in Violation of the APA

(Defendants' Parole Policies)

(Asserted Under 5 U.S.C. §§ 702, 704, and 706)

231. The allegations in the preceding paragraphs are reincorporated herein.

232. At a minimum, Defendants' near-blanket refusal to comply with the mandatory-detention provisions in Section 1225 and the limits on their parole authority in Section 1182, as well as their failure to serve charging documents and initiate removal proceedings as required by law qualifies as agency action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed, in violation of 5 U.S.C. § 706(1).

COUNT XIII

BY PLAINTIFFS BRNOVICH AND STATE OF ARIZONA ONLY

Violation of the INA and the Constitution

(Defendants' Parole Policies)

(Asserted Under The INA, The Constitution,

5 U.S.C. § 702, and as a non-statutory cause of action)

233. The allegations in the preceding paragraphs are reincorporated herein.

234. The APA aside, the federal government cannot ignore federal statutes, and the Constitution—including the separation of powers doctrine and the Take Care Clause—provides a separate cause of action to challenge the conduct described in Count VII. See, e.g., Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 343 U.S. 579 (1952).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment:

- 1 A. Declaring unconstitutional, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, Defendants' COVID-19
2 vaccine mandates on federal contractors because they violate the Tenth Amendment 3 of the Constitution, principles of federalism, and the anti-commandeering doctrine;
- 4 B. Declaring unconstitutional, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, Defendants' COVID-19 5 vaccine mandates on federal employees and contractors because the mandates violate 6 Due Process under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution;
- 7 C. Declaring, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, that the SFWTF contractor FAQ, FAR 8 Deviation Clause, and Second OMB Notice are unlawful under 41 U.S.C. § 1707(a);
- 9 D. Declaring, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that the Contractor Mandate is unlawful under 10 40 U.S.C. §§ 101 and 121;
- 11 E. Declaring, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, that Defendants' requirements that federal 12 employees, contractors, and sub-contractors must accept administration of EUA 13 vaccines is unlawful under 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3;
- 14 F. Declaring unlawful the Biden Administration's policy of releasing arriving aliens 15 subject to mandatory detention, of paroling aliens without engaging in case-by-case 16 adjudication or abiding by the other limits on that authority, and of failing to serve 17 charging documents or initiate removal proceedings against plainly inadmissible aliens 18 who are being released into the interior of the United States, and declaring that these 19 policies were issued without observance of procedure required by law;
- 20 G. Enjoining Defendants from imposing COVID-19 vaccination requirements on federal 21 contractors, sub-contractors, and employees;
- 22 H. Enjoining Defendants from issuing any COVID-19 contractor vaccine requirements, 23 guidance, or contract clauses without first following the required notice-and-comment 24 procedures of the Procurement Policy Act and the APA;
- 25 I. Enjoining Defendants from releasing arriving aliens subject to mandatory detention, 26 of paroling aliens without engaging in case-by-case adjudication or abiding by the 1 other limits on that authority, and of failing to serve charging documents or initiate 2 removal proceedings against plainly inadmissible aliens who are being released into 3 the interior of the United States;

4 J. Awarding Plaintiffs costs of litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, under the 5 Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412; and 6 K. Granting any and all other relief as the Court finds appropriate.

7 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 20th of December, 2021.
